The Second Sunday after the Epiphany

Sunday, January 17, 2027
Everyone reads the words in bold.

Call to Worship

O LORD, You have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit and when I rise.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me,
too lofty for me to attain.

God is still calling, as He called the boy Samuel in the night.
Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.

Come and see the One who calls us by name.
We have come to worship Him.

Opening Prayer

God who calls in the night, You spoke to Samuel when Your word was rare, and Jesus saw Nathanael under the fig tree before Philip called him. You know when we sit and when we rise, the worries we carried in this morning and the thanks we have not yet said. Quiet the noise in us, so that we hear You when You call our names. Make us like Philip, ready to say to a friend, "Come and see." Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Closing Blessing

Go out as people known by name. Remember that you are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore glorify God with your body. And may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace at all times and in every way. Amen.
