The Third Sunday after the Epiphany

Sunday, January 24, 2027
Everyone reads the words in bold.

Call to Worship

Rest in God alone, O my soul,
for my hope comes from Him.

Trust in Him at all times, O people;
pour out your hearts before Him.

The time is fulfilled,
and the kingdom of God is near.

Jesus calls us from our boats and our nets.
We will leave them and follow Him.

Opening Prayer

Faithful God, Your word came to Jonah a second time, and when the people of Nineveh turned from their evil ways, You relented. You did not give up on Nineveh, and You did not give up on Jonah. We come this morning with our own nets in our hands: the work we cannot put down and the worries we mend over and over. The time is short, and this world in its present form is passing away. Give us the courage of Simon and Andrew, who left their nets and followed. Where we need to turn, turn us. In the name of Jesus Christ, who calls us. Amen.

Closing Blessing

Go back to your work and your homes, and follow Jesus there. May God be your rock and your refuge this week. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Amen.
