Second Sunday of Easter

Sunday, April 4, 2027
Everyone reads the words in bold.

Call to Worship

Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony!

God is light,
and in Him there is no darkness at all.

If we walk in the light as He is in the light,
we have fellowship with one another.

Christ stands among us and says, "Peace be with you."
My Lord and my God!

Opening Prayer

Lord Jesus, on the evening of the first Easter Your disciples were together with the doors locked for fear, and You came and stood among them and showed them Your hands and Your side. Thomas was not there, and he could not believe what the others told him. Eight days later You came again, for him. Come to us, Lord, behind whatever doors we have locked, and meet the doubts we carry. Make us one in heart and soul, as the first believers were, and give us life in Your name. Amen.

Closing Blessing

Go in the peace of the risen Christ, who said, "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." May you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and by believing may you have life in His name. Amen.
