Sixth Sunday of Easter

Sunday, May 2, 2027
Everyone reads the words in bold.

Call to Worship

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for He has done wonders.

All the ends of the earth
have seen the salvation of our God.

Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the mountains sing together for joy.

This is the victory that has overcome the world:
our faith.

Opening Prayer

Lord Jesus, You no longer call us servants. You have called us friends, and You have made known to us everything You learned from Your Father. Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends, and You laid down Yours for us. While Peter was still speaking in the house of Cornelius, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard his message, and the gift was poured out even on the Gentiles. Pour out Your Spirit on us, keep us in Your love, and let Your joy be in us until our joy is complete. Amen.

Closing Blessing

Go out as the friends of Jesus, chosen and sent to bear fruit that will remain. This is His command to you: Love one another. And may His joy be in you, and your joy be complete. Amen.
