Pentecost Sunday

Sunday, May 16, 2027
Everyone reads the words in bold.

Call to Worship

How many are Your works, O LORD!
In wisdom You have made them all.

When You send Your Spirit, they are created,
and You renew the face of the earth.

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Come, Holy Spirit,
and fill the hearts of Your people.

Opening Prayer

Holy Spirit, when the day of Pentecost came, the disciples were all together in one place, and a sound like a mighty rushing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. You came to rest on each of them, and the crowd that gathered heard them declaring the wonders of God in their own languages. Breathe on us as You breathed on the dry bones in the valley, so that we may live. Fill this church, and send us out to speak of Jesus to our neighbors in words they understand. Amen.

Closing Blessing

Go out in the power of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit helps us in our weakness and intercedes for us with groans too deep for words. May He guide you into all truth this week, and may the people you meet hear from you the wonders of God. Amen.
